FMS District Summer School

Rocinante High School
3250 E. 30th Farmington, NM 87402 (505) 599-8627

General Information: The Farmington Municipal School District offers Summer School to District students who need to recover failed credits. Summer School courses are credit recovery only. No elective classes will be offered at Summer School. Space may be limited with priority given to juniors and seniors.

Mandatory meeting for students, parents and guardians is on June 4th from 8:00-8:45 or 9:00-9:45. Classes start immediately after meeting. Contracts must be signed and returned before a course will be opened.

REFERRAL: Students must have a referral from their high school counselor to take a class. Counselors may refer students for multiple classes; however, only one class will be opened at a time. and you may only pay for one class at a time. All students are required to sign a contract, follow the Edgenuity guidelines and complete all course work during the June 4 - June 29, 2018 summer session.

ORIENTATION and OFF-SITE ACCESS: All students must attend orientation meeting (see above) in order to sign the contract and ensure that they can log into the Edgenuity website for the correct class. Students have the choice of using their home computer at any time during the weekday/weekend or working in one of four computer labs at RHS.

ASSISTANCE and TUTORS SCHEDULE: Math, Science, English, & History teachers will be available each day of summer school.

Edgenuity: All Summer School students are required to complete their Edgenuity tests and semester exam in a Rocinante computer lab. Quizzes/Tests will lock after two unsuccessful attempts and must be unlocked here at Rocinante between 8:00 AM and 3:00 PM Monday-Friday. Tests will not be unlocked on the weekend. Students who have been successful are those who work consistently on campus throughout the week. Remember all course work must be completed during summer school. There will be no extensions of time to complete Summer School work.

STUDENT CONDUCT: Students are held responsible for their conduct during Summer School. They will be held responsible for any damage to the building, equipment, and/or texts. Any student whose actions interfere with normal classroom activities will be subject to termination from the program without a refund. Actions such as abusive language or insubordination toward staff and/or students will not be tolerated. The Summer School Lead Teacher has the authority to release and recommend that the student be terminated from the program with written notice. A student has the right to appeal within 48 hours to the principal of Rocinante High School.
